

DYSLEXIA

and related disorders

KidsLink
Neurobehavioral Center

Our team of clinical and school psychologists are here to help identify and understand learning differences so every child can succeed.

We offer comprehensive evaluations for:

- Dyslexia – difficulties with reading, spelling, and decoding words
- Dyscalculia – struggles with math skills and number concepts
- Dysgraphia – challenges with writing, spelling, and organizing thoughts on paper
- Reading and academic performance concerns

Our assessments include:

- Standardized testing tailored to your child's needs
- Clear explanations of results
- Recommendations for school supports, interventions, and accommodations
- Collaboration with educators and families for the best outcomes

KidsLink Family of Services is a privately owned company with a long-standing reputation for setting the standard for autism diagnosis and treatment since 2007.
